Our County Financial Report.

As a matter of considerable importance, and one in which every taxpayer feels a lively interest, we call attention to the fact that of to make out and publish a statement of all sums of money allowed and for what purpose. This publication is to be made by the clerk posting the same on the court house door. The same act also requires a detailed statement each year. To this statement is whose terms have expired. to be attached a complete detailed report of the indebtedness and county courts, the legislature wisely provided that the same should be printed in the county paper of each county, if so ordered by the court. We see that most of our exchanges from other coun ties are publishing such yearly statements by order of their county courts, and in consideration of the fact that the newspaper is universally conceded to be the best and most suitable medium of giving publicity to such matters, we see no reason why our county court should not order the financial statement of Pope county published in the DEMOCRAT and thus afford the tax-payers life.-Gazette. an opportunity to see how we
